Dear Fellow Texans:

Happy Independence Day!

On the 243rd anniversary of American independence, we celebrate the unalienable rights that drove our Founding Fathers and still define our nation today – life, liberty, and the pursuit of happiness.

While participating in a naturalization ceremony earlier this year in Irving, Texas, I was reminded of the great opportunity our nation affords. People from all around the world look to the United States of America as a beacon of freedom and hope. Our nation has fought hard to protect those ideals, and we must never take them for granted. Please join me in thanking those who have served in the Armed Forces, those who have served our communities, and those who participate in our democracy at every level of government. We must all play a part in upholding the values that make this nation great.

I'm grateful to be an American, and I am proud to represent you and our fellow Texans in the United States Senate.

May God Bless you all, and may He continue to Bless the United States of America.

Sincerely,
