

INVALID TEXAS DRIVER LICENSE?

1. www.txapps.texas.gov/txapp/txdps/dleligibility/

The screenshot shows the Texas Department of Public Safety Driver License Division License Eligibility page. It features a header with the department's logo and name. The main content area is titled "Check Driving Eligibility & Pay Reinstatement Fees" and includes a brief description of the online system. A list of bullet points outlines the services provided, such as paying fees, viewing compliance items, and tracking driving eligibility status. A "Login" section is visible at the bottom, with fields for Driver License or ID Number, Date of Birth, and Last 4 Digits of Social Security Number. A "Login" button and a note about the secure server are also present.

After you input your personal information, then a new Screen opens where it will show you whether your License is Eligible or Not Eligible. Not Eligible means you Are not legally allowed to operate a vehicle on a public road. You will also see the reason(s) why you are not eligible – or What you need to fix to get back into eligible status.

2. www.texasfailuretoappear.com/search.php

The screenshot shows the Texas Department of Public Safety search page. The header includes the department's name and logo. Below the header is a navigation bar with links for WELCOME, SEARCH, FAQ, and SPANISH. The main content area is titled "To Begin The Online Process, Please Enter Your Driver License Number And Date Of Birth." It features a form with fields for Texas Driver License # (marked with an asterisk) and Date of Birth (with dropdown menus for Month, Day, and Year). A "Submit" button is located at the bottom right of the form.

After you input your personal information, then a new Screen opens where it will show you whether or not you have any pending/open cases with any courts in Texas. If you do, then you have A driver license hold and the DPS offices will not allow you to take any actions regarding your driver license (renew, update address, etc.)

3. www.txsurchargeonline.com/Onlineservices.aspx

The screenshot shows the Texas Department of Public Safety Online Services page. The header includes the department's name and logo. Below the header is a navigation bar with links for HOME, ONLINE SERVICES, FAQ, CONTACT, and ESPAÑOL. The main content area is titled "Online Services" and includes a brief description of the online services tool. It features a form with fields for Texas Driver License or I.D. Card number (or Department of Public Safety Assigned Number), Date of Birth (MM/DD/YYYY), Last Name Only (Exactly as listed on your current driver license, I.D card or surcharge notice (letter)), and Zip Code (5 Digit). A "Login" button and a "Clear" button are located below the form. A note at the bottom states: "Note: Fields marked with * are required".

After you input your personal information, then a new Screen opens where it will show you whether or not you have any surcharges against you. If you see a surcharge listed, then look for the status. If it shows "default", then you are not making the required payments. You'll have to get these payments paid up to date for the default to change back to good standing. These must be in good standing for you to get back into Eligible Status and legally drive.